Mp3-S is a small utility designed to use the song you're listening to in Winamp as a separate Yahoo Messenger status message. Working exclusively with Winamp and Yahoo Messenger, Mp3-S places an icon in the Windows System Tray to give you access to all its customization settings. In other words, Mp3-S provides multiple options that enable to you personalize the status messages to be used in Yahoo Messenger, all of these features being directly accessible via the System Tray icon. Just as expected, the application sports a tiny text box that lets you write down any text you want to appear in the status, along with some simple codes to read information from Winamp. Additionally, you can show the busy icon next to the status message, change the skin of the app and save the configured message for the next sessions. Another good thing about Mp3-S is the fact that it instantly reads the commands sent by Winamp, which means that it can even change the status message when you pause the song. Obviously, since it does such a simple thing, the impact on system resources is rather minimal, which means the application doesn't affect the overall computer performance at all. It works okay on all Windows versions and seems to get along with both older and newer Winamp releases. Overall, Mp3-S is a handy tool if you're addicted to Yahoo Messenger and you wish to personalize the status messages with the songs played in Winamp. It is very easy to use and provides simple customization options.
